

LB 234
February 9, 1973

SPEAKER: The bill is introduced.

CLERK: Mr. President bills on first reading.

Title Read LB 470.

Title Read LB 479.

Title Read LB 480.

Mr. President we have some committee reports.

SPEAKER: Read the reports.

CLERK: Read.

SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes Senator Stahmer.

SENATOR STAHMER: Mr. Chairman this is a rather lengthy amendment and I thought it would be of service to the members of the education committee and also the press and public in general if I were allowed to have this amendment printed in the journal so that everyone could see it before the bill came up in education.

SPEAKER: Are there any amendments to printing the amendment in the journal? Hearing none so ordered.

SENATOR STAHMER: Now as a second item if I might I would like consent to be excused at 10:00.

SPEAKER: Any objections to Senator Stahmer's absence at 10:00. Hearing none, so ordered.

SENATOR STAHMER: And as a third item I would like to thank the World Herald for spelling the name correctly and I can only tell them a ball bat on a dutchman's head doesn't do any good, they should have offered Kolatches to quiet the tongue, maybe that would have been more effective.

SPEAKER: Thank you sir. Do we have any other motions on the desk?

CLERK: None Mr. President.

SPEAKER: It looks like we are down to consideration of bills on general file, beginning with LB 234 which is Senator Fellman's bill.

SENATOR FELLMAN: Mr. President and members of the legislature,

SPEAKER: Senator Fellman, just a moment let's have the clerk read the title here, and then we will be ready to go.

CLERK: Title Read LB 234.

SPEAKER: Senator Fellman we have to take those up first. Thank you. The Chair recognizes Senator Fred Carstens.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Mr. President I move the amendment be adopted. As soon as I find them I'll tell you the secret of what they are. Mr. President I got kinda caught here on the surprise and I believe I'll ask Senator Fellman, this is not a complicated bill but I don't remember whether his amendment amended the bill or put in a new provision. Could you explain.

SPEAKER: Senator Fellman.

SENATOR FELLMAN: Mr. President and members of the legislature, the amendments to the bill are almost identical to the bill itself, except that they separate the bill out in a separate paragraph. The original bill merely put the same language into
